ESID Summer School 2023 Application form

1. Applicant's details

First name: Last name:

Email: Phone:

Age: ESID Membership number:

Country of residence:

Current position:

Name and address of your institution:

2. Statement of Career Goals

In this section, please, provide a statement (typewritten, max.200 words), explaining why and how attendance at the ESID Summer School 2023 will benefit your career now and in the future, and answer the following questions:
1. How is your daily work related to the PID field?
2. How will attending the ESID Summer school help you in your everyday tasks?
3. How will it help you in your career development (i.e., next 5 years)?

3. List of publications and/or meeting presentations related to PID

4. PID Case summary

In this section, please, provide a summary (typewritten, max.200 words) of the PID clinical case which you would like to present at the ESID Summer School 2023.

5. Travel Grant Application

I would like to apply for ESID Summer School 2023 Travel Grant.

Yes

No

Travel Grant Personal statement

If you want to apply for Travel Grant, please, complete this section and provide a statement (typewritten, max.200 words) justifying the need to apply for ESID Summer School 2023 travel grant.

Please, complete this form and send it together with the reguired documents (listed below), in a single PDF document to the ESID Administrative Office at:info@esid.org.

Application checklist:

Curriculum Vitae

Personalized letter of support from your Head of Department or similar (please, note that we only accept 1 applicant supported per head of department).

Case of PID that is educational and not just "tricky" (max. 3 PowerPoint slides in PDF format).